On Friday, February 18, 2022, at approximately 1653 hours INV J. Evans interviewed D/O Cannon W. McLeod concerning an incident that occurred inside the Appling County Detention Center on Friday, January 29, 2022, involving I/M Tremar Harris. Prior to beginning the interview, INV Evans read D/O McLeod his Garrity Warning. D/O McLeod advised he understood these rights, signed, and dated the attached document. D/O McLeod relayed the following:

D/O McLeod advised INV Evans that Saturday, January 29th began as a normal day. D/O McLeod said around lunch, I/M Tremar Harris started spreading feces on the wall inside his cell. D/Os spoke with I/M Harris. I/M Harris apologized for his actions and cleaned up the mess he made.

After that, I/M Harris repeated his actions with feces, apologizing for his actions and again cleaning it up.

Later in the day, D/O McLeod said during the third or fourth occurrence of the same actions I/M Harris was placed in the restraint chair. D/O McLeod said I/M Harris continued to free the restraints. D/O McLeod explained this was the first time he had used the restraint chair.

On the last two (2) visits in the segregation cell with I/M Harris, D/O William Rentz accompanied other D/Os. On the final visit, I/M Harris' wrists were secured using handcuffs. After I/M Harris was secured, D/O Rentz placed leg iron restraints around the upper portion of I/M Harris' chest and pulled back. D/O Rentz told I/M Harris if you get out again, I'm gonna restrain you by your neck or something to that effect according to D/O McLeod. D/O McLeod could not remember the exact words but knew the verbiage he relayed was similar to what was communicated.

INV Evans requested D/O McLeod identify D/Os that assisted with or went into I/M Harris' cell. D/O McLeod said the first visit consisted of himself and D/Os Gonzalez and McCullough. After the first incident with I/M Harris, D/O called Jail Administrator CPT A. Bell. D/O McLeod had not experienced any behavior or actions I/M Harris was responsible for. D/O McLeod said CPT Bell came to the Jail and spoke with I/M Harris.

D/O McLeod could not recall who assisted with I/M Harris during the other incidents on Saturday with the exception of the final contact. D/O McLeod said the final visit was conducted by D/Os Rentz, McLeod, Fennell, and Brannon. D/O McLeod said he assisted with restraining the wrist of I/M Harris. After I/M Harris was secured, he stepped to the side.

D/O McLeod said D/O Rentz's actions took him by surprise. D/O McLeod claimed he did not know what to think.

D/O McLeod did not complete any type of report about this incident. D/O McLeod said he thought D/O Rentz had been there longer than he had. D/O McLeod told INV Evans he now realizes he should have reported and completed documentation about this incident. This was reiterated during the Basic Jailer School D/O McLeod attended and completed January 31 – February 11 in Ware County.

D/O McLeod closed by stating he realizes how important it is.

On Monday, February 7, 2022, at approximately 1300 hours INV J. Evans interviewed D/O Daydan Brannon in the interview room at the Appling County Sheriff's Office. D/O Brannon was interviewed concerning an incident occurring on January 29, 2022, inside the padded cell in segregation involving I/M Tremar Harris. Prior to beginning the interview, INV Evans read D/O Brannon his statement of rights. These rights are also referred to as Garrity Warning. As INV Evans read the document, D/O Brannon read alone. At the conclusion, D/O Brannon advised he understood his rights, initialed beside 1 thru 6 and signed the attached document. D/O Brannon relayed the following:

According to D/O Brannon he was working the split shift on Saturday, January 29, 2022. This shift works from 1200 to 2400 hours. D/O Brannon understood prior to reporting for duty, Detention staff had been dealing with I/M Harris and issues he was causing. D/O Brannon explained I/M Harris was not complying with requests, spreading feces, and urinating (on wall and door) inside his cell. I/M Harris supposedly tore up four (4) jump suits and three (3) bed mattresses. D/O Brannon said he felt I/M Harris wanted his way. D/O Brannon did not know what time these acts were committed by I/M Harris.

D/O Brannon said I/M Harris was causing problems in the cell between 1430 and 1500 hours. When D/Os entered the cell, D/O McCullough carried the shield. D/O Brannon followed D/O McCullough into the cell. I/M Harris was threatening the D/Os. D/O Brannon claimed he was attempting to calm I/M Harris down.

INV Evans inquired about I/M Harris' actions. D/O Brannon said I/M Harris swung at the D/Os and knocked the hat off D/O McCullough. D/O Brannon said I/M Harris spit on him twice.

D/O Brannon said around 1700 hours I/M Harris smeared feces on the wall again. D/O Brannon was on pill call but knew D/Os secured I/M Harris in the restraint chair. D/O Brannon said after I/M Harris was restrained, he (I/M Harris) freed his arm. This occurred several times. D/O Brannon recalled D/O Rentz came in early and assisted with securing I/M Harris in the chair. D/O Gonzalez was working in the tower.

After I/M Harris freed his arm, D/O Rentz assisted the D/Os (Brannon, Ansley Fennell and McCullogh) with returning in the cell and securing I/M Harris. D/O Brannon described D/O Rentz bringing two (2) pairs of hand cuffs and leg shackles with him. D/O Brannon said I/M Harris' arm / wrist was secured using the handcuffs with the rods in the chair. D/O Brannon said the shackles were not used. According to D/O Brannon, D/O Rentz placed the shackles on the arm of the restraint chair after they were not needed or used to secure I/M Harris. D/O Brannon recalled I/M Harris making comments about being hungry. D/O Brannon said D/O Rentz told I/M Harris he was fucking up my dinner too and I'm hungry. There were additional comments made, but D/O Brannon could not recall them. D/O Brannon claimed he was standing guard during this process. After this, the D/Os exited the cell.

When dinner / sack meals were served, D/O Rentz told D/O Brannon to undo I/M Harris' right hand to allow him to eat. I/M Harris asked to be removed from the segregation cell. According to D/O Brannon he was not aware of other issues with I/M Harris. D/O Brannon said he became sick and went home early around 1930 hours.

INV Evans asked D/O Brannon to explain what happened in the cell when I/M Harris was secured. D/O Brannon said prior to departing the cell, D/O Rentz removed the leg shackles from the handle on the chair, wrapped them around the shoulder – chest area. D/O Brannon claimed D/O Rentz did not choke I/M Harris and did not remember them (shackles) being around I/M Harris' neck. According to D/O Brannon, I/M Harris and D/O Rentz were joking back and forth. Specifically, I/M Harris asked D/O Rentz what you going to do big papa when he had the shackles.

INV Evans asked D/O Brannon if he reported any acts to his supervisor? D/O Brannon said he told D/O Gonzalez (who was working in the tower) and D/O Amber Brown about I/M Harris actions. D/O Brannon said he noticed I/M Harris when he (D/O Brannon) was checking the segregation wing.

D/O Brannon told INV Evans he has not reviewed the video of the incidents he described occurring on January 29th.

No further relevant information was obtained.

On Friday, February 11, 2022, at approximately 0924 hours INV J. Evans interviewed D/O Ansley Fennell concerning an incident that occurred inside the Appling County Detention Center on Friday, January 29, 2022, involving I/M Tremar Harris. Prior to beginning the interview, INV Evans read D/O Fennell her Garrity Warning. D/O Brown advised she understood these rights, signed, and dated the attached document. D/O Fennell relayed the following:

D/O Fennell has been employed as a D/O since July 31, 2021.

D/O Fennell recalled I/M Harris misbehaving on Saturday, January 29th. D/O Fennell explained I/M Harris was smearing pooh everywhere and was put in the restraint chair a couple of times during the day. D/O Fennell could not recall the exact number of times I/M Harris was secured in the restraint chair.

Near shift change, D/O Fennell said I/M Harris had freed an arm that had been secured. When this occurred, D/Os William Rentz and Fennell obtained two (2) pairs of leg irons and two (2) pairs of handcuffs. According to D/O Fennell, she and D/Os Rentz, McLeod and Brannon went into the cell. I/M Harris' arms were restrained using the handcuffs to a bar on the chair. D/O Fennell said they were preparing to exit the cell when D/O Rentz grab a pair of leg irons, put them around I/M Harris' neck and said something. D/O Fennell claimed she could not recall what D/O Rentz or I/M Harris said. D/O Rentz removed the leg irons, and the D/Os left the cell identified by D/O Brown as Segregation 2.

D/O Fennell said she did not document anything about this incident. However, D/O Fennell advised she knew she should have.

When asked if D/O Fennell knew if any documentation had been completed concerning this incident, D/O Fennell advised she did not know.

No additional information was obtained.
